Join in on a holiday tradition. The Umstead Hotel is hosting Triangle Family Services 7th annual Gingerbread Gala featuring one of a kind handcrafted ginger bread houses created by the area's top pastry chefs. Mark your calendars now for Thursday December 17th and make plans to come out with family and friends. Join in the various activities that include.....bidding on a one of a kind gingerbread house you can proudly display, feast on the delectable desserts prepared by Chef Daniel Benjamin and decorate your own gingerbread person to take home. Start an annual tradition by helping neighbors in need through Triangle Family Services. To order tickets go on line to www.tfsnc.org or call 821-0790, ext. 382

More information of Triangle Family Services:

Since 1937, Triangle Family Services has been helping families and individuals overcome life's challenges by giving them the tools they need to move away from crisis and into more stable and healthy life situations. Triangle Family Services assists more than 5,000 individuals and families each year through programs focused on family safety, credit counseling and mental health. The agency is an active participant in community partnerships involving over 40 local governments, nonprofits, civic, and religious organizations working to improve the lives of low-income families. With the support you give to this year's Gingerbread Gala we will be able to continue a 72 year tradition of helping neighbors in need.
