Supervising Provider Summary Statement

We are looking to hire a responsible, well-respected Physician, PA, or independently practicing CNM (for supervision of our Lactation, Nursing and Mental Health programs). We are currently recruiting a clinician to work a minimum of 4-5 hours/week. This is an hourly position and fully remote.

Responsibilities

- Act as a supervising physician for 1 Lactation Consultant, 1 LPN and approve treatment plans for 5 Mental Health and Maternal Mental Health Therapists: perform quarterly chart reviews, review and sign off on treatment plans, and hold virtual meetings with assigned clinicians as needed, etc.
- The expectation for Mental Health Services will be to review 5-20 clinical assessments weekly or as needed at a rate of 3-5 assessments per one (1) hour of consultative fees.

Requirements

- Actively licensed as MD, DO, PA, FNP or Independently practicing CNM in good standing in NC with a valid DEA certification
- At least 2 years post-graduate independent practice
- Ability to act as supervising physician for the clinicians listed
- Comfort with technology, professionalism, and strong communication skills
- Telemedicine or virtual care experience strongly preferred
- Compassionate and patient-centered approach

Values

- Integrity: We act in a manner consistent with our words and beliefs
- Honesty: We deal with each other in a straightforward manner
- Respect: We treat others with care and consideration
- Courage: We pursue our beliefs with strength and perseverance
- Diversity: We seek; value; and respect differences among our teammates
- Balance: We strive for stability and vitality in our lives

Working Hours/Conditions

- Remote 100% (Flexible hours)
- Malpractice insurance provided
